

BROOK FARM STABLES
WORLD HORSE WELFARE, NORFOLK
WEDNESDAY 26TH AUGUST 2009

World Horse Welfare (formally known as the I.L.P.H.) in Norfolk.

We have arranged a personal tour, which will include a tour of the stables, we will see the horses that are currently being rehabilitated and gain a wealth of information from the staff.

There are garden walks, an adventure playground, a café and shop.

We have been told there will be activities throughout the day.

The price for this trip is a maximum of £10 for the coach.

We will be leaving Brook Farm Stables at 9.00 am and plan leave Norfolk at 4.00 pm to return to Brook Farm by 6.00pm approx.

Please contact Debbie at Brook Farm Stables or call Sam on 07794056182 to book your seats.

For those of you who have already shown your interest in this trip, please confirm your seats with Debbie or Sam can join us.

These trips are fun for all the family and we hope you

Lightning is a Welsh Mountain Pony who has adopted Jerry a Thoroughbred Colt Foal, they live at Belwade Farm, Aboyne, Aberdeenshire one of the World Horse Welfare Centres.

This is the kind of work that the World Horse Welfare carry out, to make sure that foals like Jerry have a mum who can look after them - Lightning is a brilliant foster mum for Jerry.
